Many thanks Mr Kemp – Head of PE

Papillon Project

Matt Willer has been awarded a BEM for his services to young people through the Papillon Project which Diss High is a part of.

The founder of a charity helping Norfolk schoolchildren to create allotments said he was "deeply humbled" to be recognised in the 2024 New Year Honours list.

The charity aims to inspire young people to learn about food and "live more sustainable lives" by developing eco-friendly allotments using recycled and reclaimed materials. Many congratulations Matt!
